Regarding: Jane Rocio Evans vs. Baker Places, Inc.
Case Number: C 08-00776 WHA

I am writing to state that the letter I recently received stating that I, as a plaintiff, failed to appear at the case management conference held on May 8, 2008 shocks me. I never received any letter whatsoever stating that I was ordered to appear on this date regarding Baker places. There is no way on earth that I would not have presented for this appointment, particularly given the amount of work I have been putting into this case. I have put many, many hours into this case, not only consulting with East bay legal Aid on several occasions, but spending hours giving affidavits to the NLRB, San Francisco, regarding Baker Places, and meeting to consult with them. My good cause is that I never received this letter to appear.

I am also requesting that I please be able to appear on May 22, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. as it is impossible for me to be able to appear on May 22 at 3:00 p.m., as I am scheduled at this very same Courthouse to appear regarding a case vs. Walden House, Inc. at 2:30 p.m. on May 22, 2008, and obviously cannot be in two places at once. I am sending a copy of my scheduled Walden House hearing with this letter, in order to verify this. I am submitting both this letter and the letter concerning Walden House at the Court House on this date, May 15, 2008 and will ask for a stamped copy of this to verify that I have submitted both of these documents.

I am requesting that my session at 3:00 p.m. on this date thus be rescheduled, to another day. I also cannot make it Friday, May 23rd and May 29th, due to other Court appearances regarding employers. I am respectfully requesting that I be mailed another letter regarding the new rescheduled Hearing date.

Respectfully,

Jane Rocio Evans,
